RE: Instrumental Music Lessons
DATE: 27 June 2007

The following programs are available to students:

Private or group instruction in piano, violin, guitar, voice, or any band instrument.

The above programs will be handled through LAAPA's Covington School of Music. LAAPA will be responsible for staffing the classes and lessons, scheduling, handling any questions and/or concerns, and billing.

Instruction in piano, violin, guitar, voice, and band instruments will be available to interested students. All private and ensemble instruction will be scheduled during enrichment or rest periods (with approval of the school administration and parents) and during after school hours.

Tuition for all private instruction is $82 per month per student (for a 30 minute session weekly) with a $40 annual registration fee. Ensemble tuition is $55 per month per student (for a 60 minute session weekly). Lessons are scheduled weekly (after contacting parents and teachers) and are held on campus when school is in session (no lessons given on holidays, during assemblies, field trip conflicts, or other special event situations).

Interested parents are asked to complete the form below and/or contact Wanda Cullen at 985-778-9801 or 985-674-2992 or send an email to wcullen@laapa.com.
