

The PYP Action Cycle

Action powers growth! Education extends beyond the intellect to include not only socially responsible attitudes, but also thoughtful action. Learners have the power to choose to act; to decide on their actions; and to reflect on their actions to make a difference in and to the world.